

The 2nd Corporate Social Responsibility Project (CSR): Cleaning A Buddhist Temple

On Friday, September 22, 2017, the volunteer staff of the Finansa Group, together with The Bangkok Free Trade Zone, participated in cleaning the grounds of the temple, the chapel and the bathrooms at Wat Mongkolnimit. This was done in order to improve the surrounding environment and to build a good relationship with the community. At the event, the volunteer staff offered food to the Buddhist monks and gave offerings to the monks. Cleaning equipment was donated for further use at the Buddhist temple and the community.
